meditations on life

Everything that lives,
lives not alone,
nor for itself.

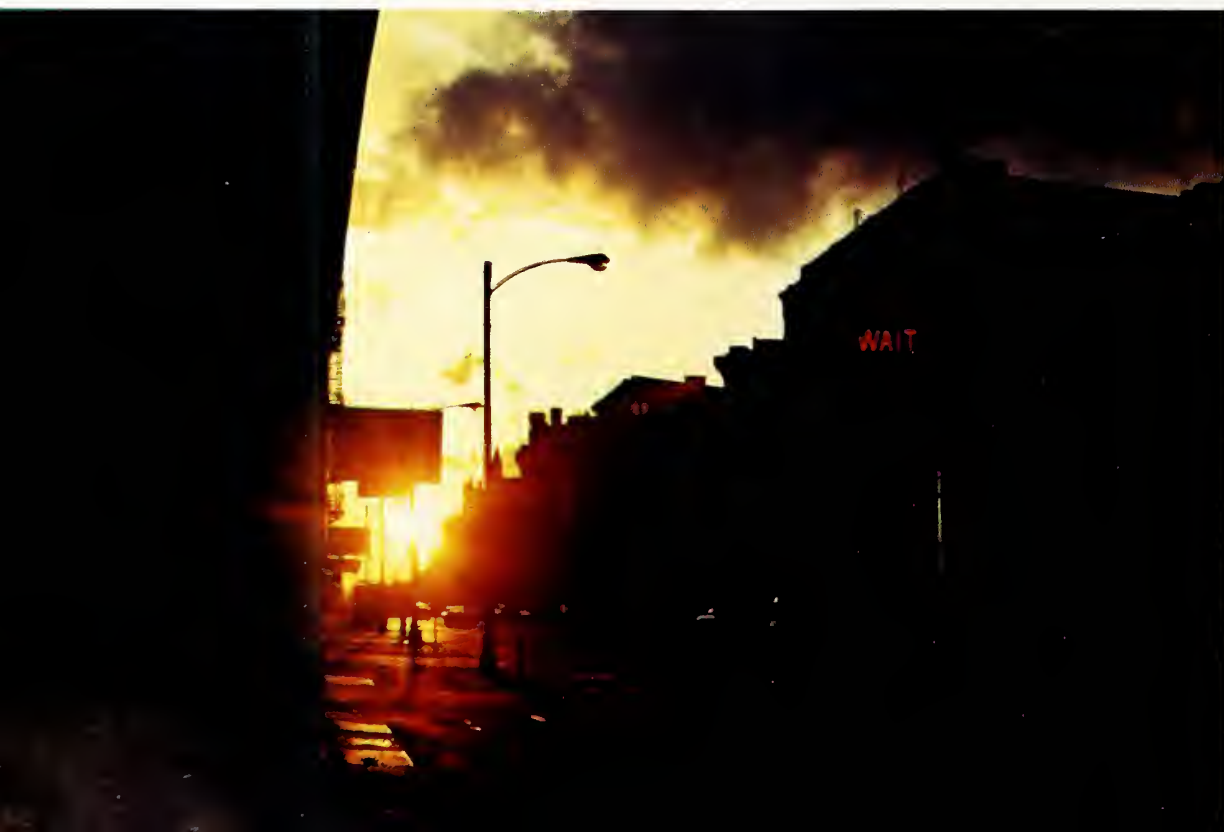

Happiness is obtained through living life as it is, not as you wish it were.

Ideals are like the stars: we never reach them, but we chart our course by them.

Life and time

are our only real possessions.

Too much sanity may be madness,
and the maddest of all,
to see life as it is
and not as it should be.

The main thing in life
is not to be afraid to be human.

There is more to life
than increasing it's speed.

In solitude

one lives in all ages.

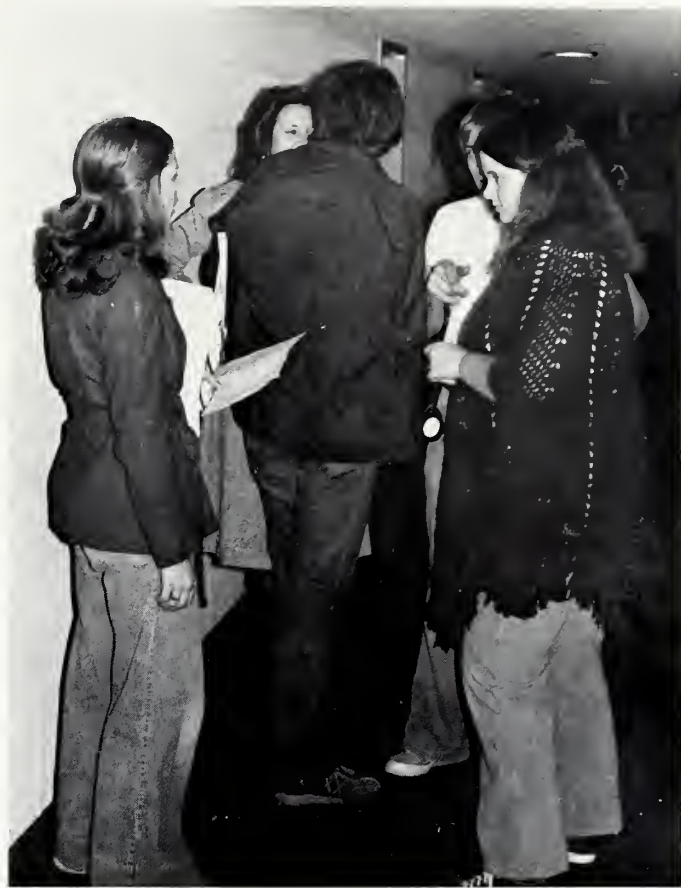

In solitude

we are least alone.

The better part of one's life consists of his friendships.

A moment's insight
is worth
a lifetime's experience.

To wonder is to begin to understand.

A dreamer lives forever.

Accept me as I am,

only then will we discover each other.

Life can only be understood backwards; but it must be lived forward.

Cogito, ergo sum.

The quality of the imagination
is to flow and not to freeze.

Happy are those who dream dreams
and are ready to pay the price
to make them come true.

Discovery consists in seeing what everybody else has seen and thinking what nobody else has thought.

It is only with the heart that one can see rightly;
what is essential is invisible to the eye.

I do not know beyond this life what I shall meet.
I only know that as a man I am incomplete.

Each moment of the year
has its own beauty . . .
a picture which was never seen before
and which shall never be seen again.

Ralph Waldo Emerson
